

Strategic Planner, Digital Marketing

Who are we?

Founded in 1996, Rosewood Marketing is a full-service marketing agency guiding business owners in the Anabaptist Plain Community to sustainable growth through marketing leadership. For many clients, Rosewood is their first entry into a relationship with a marketing agency. Our goal of delivering results requires not only solving a client's marketing challenges, but also supporting their Anabaptist values and culture. We run our company on the Entrepreneurial Operating System (EOS) which allows us to set clear expectations of our employees, increase operational efficiencies, and develop a strong sense of trust and accountability.

About The Team

Rosewood takes an integrated approach to marketing, prescribing programs for our clients rather than projects. The first step each year is for the Marketing Strategy team to work with the client to clarify the business objectives and then to develop an annual plan. Throughout the year the resulting marketing program is executed, monitored, and measured through a structured Marketing Guide Path.

About The Role

The Strategic Planner, Digital Marketing is a key member of the Marketing Strategy team and as a result, helps to clarify clients' business goals. They are responsible for independently identifying digital marketing opportunities that will support business objectives, and bringing them to the cross-functional planning sessions. There the team balances budget, market factors and client mandates to create omni-channel programs designed to increase lead generation, nurture customers, support sales teams, and drive revenue.

On any given day you might

- Collaborate with other members of the Strategic Marketing team to build a detailed annual marketing plan that includes: Search Optimization, Social Media Marketing (organic and paid), Paid Search/PPC, paid advertising/display, email marketing, lead magnets, automated marketing, industry-specific 3rd-party tools (e.g. online visualizers, product configurators), and CRM systems

- Lead a client-facing strategy session, digging for information that will help shape strategic recommendations
- Create budgets, timelines, and role assignments for recommended programs and projects
- Present your marketing plan to a client, answering questions in pursuit of securing budget approval
- Ensure that executed programs remain on strategy
- Field questions from digital marketing team members regarding best practices and specific issue resolution
- Conduct competitive research and turn findings into market insights and customer recommendations
- Get involved in specialized project work when workload capacity permits

Ideal Candidate

As a Strategic Planner, Digital Marketing, your natural inclination is to start every project asking “why.” You ask relevant questions that purposefully draw out salient information, and you pair it with active listening and documentation. You understand that each client has different challenges selling to different audiences, so every approach must be unique. You understand the customer journey, and know what tactics should be applied at each stage in the marketing funnel. You are an integrated marketer, so you will advocate for the best components of a marketing plan, regardless of whether they are digital or conventional in nature. Your wealth of experience and knowledge is something that you willingly share with your colleagues.

You Bring

- 7+ years of experience in digital marketing, ideally Agency side
- Demonstrated experience creating strategic marketing plans for B2B and B2C clients
- Experience with leading advertising PPC platforms (Google, Microsoft, Meta, LinkedIn) and how to recommend each appropriately
- Proficiency with Google Analytics (GA4)
- Excellent communication and documentation skills
- Understanding of the Anabaptist Plain Community (Amish, Mennonite, Brethren) and their cultural values

Bonus Points For

- Experience developing marketing for companies that utilize dealer networks
- Working knowledge of SEM/SEO tools like: Moz, SEMrush, Ahrefs, Screaming Frog
- Experience with social media platforms like Facebook, Instagram, Pinterest, and LinkedIn
