Spoil your attendees with unexpected service

Brighten their palates' day

Leave a lasting impression

Are you dissatisfied with the hold-your-nose coffee typically served at events like yours?

Your guests shouldn't need to smother their coffee with creamer and sugar to hide that burnt taste..

Let your guests feel the love.

Spread the coffee love.

You love a creative cup, but your guests may never have had the chance. Introduce them.

Create events that will stick long after they are over.

Going the extra mile makes everyone a little happier to be there.

Inspire your special day.

Coffee is more than caffeine, but caffeine is something. Your guests will appreciate the energy boost.

What would it look like to take your event to the next level?

You want your guests to feel like you laid out the red carpet for them. Whether you're planning a wedding, hosting a conference, scheduling a company banquet, or organizing a private party, you're looking for the extra special dash of service that says, "We care about your experience here."

But you have a problem. As a coffee-lover, you're dismayed at the thought of serving the kind of bland coffee typically served at events like yours.

You shouldn't have to serve coffee like that. Coffee should be on purpose, not an afterthought.

We believe delicious coffee brings a buzz that goes far beyond the caffeine. It's about the warmth and energy of artistic hospitality.

That's why we bring finely crafted brews to the places where they're least likely to be found.

And we bring them in style, using a minimalist table setup and beautiful coffee art.

No more stewing over bad brewing. Let's join together to make your event one to be remembered long after it's over.
